REACH

Pico Electronics Inc. is, under the structure of REACH regulation, a manufacturer of "articles" to our customers. We do not manufacture "substances" or "preparations" and our components ("articles") do not involve the intentional release of "substances" and/or "preparations". As such we do not anticipate registration or pre-registration requirements for the components ("articles") we supply.

Pico Electronics Inc. does monitor the Substances of Very High Concern (SVHS), as defined by REACH, in our products and manufacturing processes. This is an on-going process since the complete list of SVHC's is released in stages.

Pico Electronics Inc. can hereby state that our products/components manufactured at our location and then shipped to our customers do not contain any of the Substances of Very High Concern (SVHS) on the current/latest REACH candidate list.

Pico Electronics Inc. can also state that is compliant with the most current/latest Annexes as they relate to the SVHS.
